BUILDING AND ESTATE: Infinity Wilanów is a small development from the renowned developer DOR. It comprises a complex of intimate, three-story buildings built around a green patio, featuring a relaxation area for residents. The development is characterized by a tranquil, elegant design, spacious patios/balconies/gardens, and carefully planned greenery.

With residents' comfort in mind, functional common areas with amenities have been created – a Recreation Zone for adults and a Kids' Corner for children to play in – for the exclusive use of residents. The development has a 24-hour reception, security, and constant monitoring. Numerous restaurants, bars, cafes, pastry shops, and shops are within walking distance, as well as extensive walking areas beneath the escarpment.

LOCATION: The Infinity Estate is a new, intimate residential complex located in Miasteczko Wilanów, near numerous walking and cycling paths and the Medcover Hospital. The Miasteczko Wilanów offers residents full urban infrastructure – numerous restaurants, cafes, service outlets, medical centers, the Medcover Hospital, cultural centers, international schools, preschools, and nurseries. Attractive recreational areas are nearby – Wilanów Park and Palace, the Powsin Cultural Park, Kabacki Forest, and Czerniakowskie Lake. Wilanów is one of the most dynamically developing districts of Warsaw, offering comfortable living and relaxation after work.

TRANSPORT: Miasteczko Wilanów is well connected to the center of Warsaw by both car and public transportation. Infinity is located near the Warsaw bypass (behind tall screens) and the route connecting Wilanów and Ursynów. A fast tram line is currently under construction, running along Sobieskiego Street, which will provide convenient connections to the metro and the entire Mokotów district. Bus stops are nearby.
