The area boasts a full urban infrastructure: elegant cafes, trendy restaurants, schools, kindergartens, shops, and services.

BUILDING: The modern Pasaż Saska i building is a residential complex constructed in 2004, designed for residents who value comfort and functionality. Located in a prestigious part of Grzybowska Street, it is close to Grzybowski Square and Rondo ONZ, next to fashionable hotels and office buildings. It borders Mirowski Park. Shops and services are located on the ground floor. The underground level includes two levels of parking. The building provides complete comfort and security: 24-hour security and monitoring, multiple elevators serving all floors, and underground parking. LOCATION: Grzybowska is an address that combines what’s often missing in the capital’s city center—true greenery and urban atmosphere. Just steps from the building lies Grzybowski Square, one of Warsaw’s seven historic squares, thoroughly revitalized, with a pond, mist, and mature trees—a place where residents of this part of Śródmieście enjoy coffee, a walk with their dog, or a moment of relaxation between meetings. Just behind Hala Mirowska, there’s an additional green space, and from here, it’s only a short walk to Krasiński Garden—one of Warsaw’s most beautiful, 18th-century city parks, with avenues of old chestnut trees, a pond, and a quiet atmosphere that makes you forget you’re in the heart of the city. It’s this proximity to real green spaces—a rarity in this part of Śródmieście—that gives the Grzybowska area a distinct, more “neighborhood” feel than a typical business center. At the same time, the apartment remains in the heart of the city - surrounded by class A office buildings (Metropolitan, PZU Tower) and the Radisson Blu Centrum hotel, with direct access to shops, restaurants and cafes in the same frontage.

TRANSPORT : Świętokrzyska Metro Station is approximately a 5-minute walk away, Rondo ONZ Metro Station is an 8-minute walk away, and there are numerous tram and bus stops nearby. Central Station, Złote Tarasy Shopping Center, and the Palace of Culture are all within a 10-minute walk!
