BUILDING: The distinctive Melody Park apartment complex located on Puławska Street, in Służewiec, in the Mokotów district. This elegant residence was built by the developer Marvipol in 2009. It consists of four independent buildings connected by a two-level underground garage. Its location right by the Służewiecka Valley means the apartment windows offer views over the extensive grounds around the Racetrack, the Służewiecka Valley, Puławska Street, and the Ursynów skyline. The musical names of the surrounding streets inspired the development's name, Melody Park, with the individual buildings named Etiuda Residence, Villa Sonata, Villa Cantata, and Villa Suita. The estate has 24-hour security and two reception desks. On the estate, for residents only:

sauna

The grounds are nicely landscaped, with a playground for children. The building exit leads directly onto the green areas of the Służewiecka Valley.

APARTMENT DESCRIPTION: a large, well-laid-out 2-room apartment located on the 2nd floor of a modern apartment building, with a loggia. Finished and equipped with household appliances. The apartment offers a panoramic view of the Służewiecka Valley, Ursynów, and the Racetrack.

Living room connected by an opening to a bright kitchen, with a large balcony window and access to a spacious, covered loggia
Fully equipped kitchen with a window – refrigerator, dishwasher, stove, oven, washing machine
